JIM MCLEAN'S GOLF SCHOOL WORLD HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCES A SUCCESSFUL FIRST YEAR AT THE BILTMORE HOTEL MIAMI-CORAL GABLES

On the heels of a strong 2018, a renovation and much more to come, the Jim McLean Golf School is positioned to be a game changer in the industry

Coral Gables, FL (November 1st, 2018) – The Jim McLean Golf School and The Biltmore Hotel announce its 1st year anniversary at iconic hotel. On the heels of a strong 2018 and an expansive renovation program at the historic Biltmore hotel and golf course, the Jim McLean Golf School is celebrating solid growth at its new location after having its 26-year stint at the resort in Doral. Jim McLean moved his number 1 ranked golf school to the Biltmore Hotel in 2018. The Jim McLean Golf School is positioned to be a game changer in the industry. The school's success record is buoyed by key golfer wins and strong relationships with its students and clients.

Jim has taught major champions of the PGA and LPGA tours. Cristie Kerr a South Florida native whom worked with Jim won both the US Open and the LPGA. She ranked #1 one in juniors and #1 amateur in America. Lexi Thompson another one of Jim's esteemed students also earned the #1 spot in both junior golf and women's amateur golf. Cristie became the #1 ranked professional in the world and Lexi has reached the number #2 spot. Additionally, Jim was working with Tom Kite when he won his U.S. Open as well as Keegan Bradley, when he won the PGA. While he was training with Jim, Keegan was also named Rookie of the Year and succeeded to the the U.S. Ryder Cup team and President's Cup team.

In July, The Biltmore Hotel, the national historic landmark established in 1926, announced its renovation program including plans to restore its 18-hole, par-71 golf course to the original grandeur of the 1925 Donald Ross-designed course layout. The golf course restoration, which is one of only nine (9) Donald Ross designed golf courses in the top-100 golf courses in the U.S., is being managed by veteran golf course architect Brian Silva and is adding Bermuda grass on the existing tees, fairways & greens, incorporating new bunkers, enhancing the short-game practice as well as separate range areas, establishing challenging signature holes, and extend the overall course length to over 7,100 yards making it worthy of championship level play. Both projects are scheduled to be completed on December 15th 2018.

"I feel like I'm in the perfect spot. We have everything we need here to be able to teach every aspect of golf game at the highest possible level. Coral Gables is an important part of the South Florida community and we are proud to be part of The Biltmore Hotel and this dynamic community," said Jim McLean, CEO of the Jim McLean Golf School, which operates eight locations. Recently, Jim made Coral Gables his permanent personal residence as well.

Jim has been a top 4 ranked teacher in America by Golf Digest Magazine for 25 years. He's the #1 ranked teacher in the state of Florida. Jim has 19 of his past teachers ranked in America's top 100, 48 ranked best in state, and 23 Best Young Teachers. Jim has been the National PGA TEACHER OF THE YEAR and is a member of the World Teachers Hall of Fame. Jim has trained the finest golf instructors in the world. He has golf schools in Madrid, Mayakoba, Mexico, S. Korea, Texas, Denver, and MBGC.
